

TAL REBACK

Tal is a Principal at KKR where she is responsible for leading the firm's global LIBOR transition effort across Private Equity, Credit, Capital Markets and Real Estate. Day to day, Tal focuses on the firm's credit portfolios and leads KKR Credit's business content and branding initiatives.

She serves as a member of the Federal Reserve Board and New York Fed's Alternative Reference Rate Committee ("ARRC"), which is the public-private sector working group to help ensure the market's successful transition to alternative rates, and a member of the LSTA. Tal previously worked as an analyst specializing in distressed debt, restructuring and event-driven investments.

She holds a BA in Economics and Art History from Brandeis University.
