

JASON FRIEDMAN
Managing Director
Marathon

Mr. Jason Friedman is a Managing Director, Head of Corporate Credit Strategy and Corporate Business Development and a member of the Firm's Executive and Investment Committees. Mr. Friedman is responsible for corporate credit strategy development, fund and CLO structuring, and business development for the Marathon Family of Funds Corporate Credit sectors.

From 1996 to 2007, Mr. Friedman worked for CCMP Capital and its predecessors JP Morgan Partners, Chase Capital Partners and Chemical Venture Partners, where he was a Principal. Mr. Friedman has been engaged in all aspects of the investment process including sourcing transactions, performing complex investment analyses and diligence, developing growth and restructuring strategies in conjunction with management teams and monitoring Company performance at the Board of Director level. Prior to joining CCMP in 1996, Mr. Friedman began his career working as an investment banking analyst with Chemical Bank's Acquisition Finance and Global Loan Syndication groups.

Mr. Friedman holds a BA in Public Policy and Economics, cum laude, from Duke University and his MBA with High Distinction (Baker Scholar) from the Harvard Business School.