

Phillip Black

Phillip Black is an Associate in Research and Public Policy at the LSTA. In this role he helps craft and implement the LSTA's advocacy program and, along with LSTA General Counsel Elliot Ganz, runs the LSTA's grassroots advocacy affiliate, the Business Loans Coalition.

Prior to joining the LSTA in February 2019, Phillip worked on the staff of Congressman Adrian Smith (NE-03), where he served as a district liaison. Phillip has also worked on the Congressional and Political Affairs team at the American Institute of CPAs.

Black holds a BS in Business Administration from the University of Tennessee (Knoxville) and an MS in Finance from American University.