

Mark Bennett joined IHS Markit in 2012 and manages a team of business analysts in Dallas, Texas and Noida, India locations. Mark's team focuses on the development, deployment, and training of CLO and security backed compliance models for numerous US and European clients. Mr. Bennett began his CLO career as a Business Analyst for BNY Mellon in 2007 during the height and subsequent drop in the CLO market.

Previously, Mark worked for over 15 years in real estate finance and contract law with an extended tenure for a Houston, Texas law firm. During this period, Mr. Bennett managed a team of analysts while obtaining his Paralegal Designation which he continues to hold. With his passion for continuous growth and challenges, Mark is currently working on his private pilot IFR rating.