

Tracey Luttenegger is an Executive Director of Product Management at IHS Markit. She is responsible for the CLO Compliance product and oversees the product alignment for the Credit market segment, ensuring development priorities correspond with the commercial strategy of the segment. She has been part of the Product Management organization at IHSM for 12 years, primarily focusing on the Buyside and Third Party capabilities within the Wall Street Office (WSO) suite of products. Prior to joining the Product Management team, Tracey worked in the WSO Services group as an operations analyst and account manager for 5 years.

Tracey is a graduate of Tulane University and holds a BSM in Finance and Marketing.