

NEW SECURITY FEATURES INSTALLED ON LSTA.ORG

Here at the LSTA, we are concerned about your security. On Wednesday, November 23, 2022, the LSTA installed a new security feature on our site.

When you initially log in to our site, you will receive this notification.

VERIFICATION REQUIRED: Additional verification is required for login. Please check the email address associated with the account for a verification link.

Username or Email Address

Remember Me

You will then receive an email from LSTA Website Admin to the email address associated with this username (you may receive it in your inbox or your spam folder). Once you receive that email, please click on Verify and Log In and it will take you back to the login screen with a green bar confirming this email was verified where you will input your information again. Please click on “Remember Me” before you click on LOG IN.

If you have any issues or questions, please contact us @ connect@lsta.org.
