

PATRICIA TESSIER

Patricia Tessier is Managing Director and Global Head of Loan Platforms, IHS Markit

Patricia Tessier runs Loan Platforms, the market-leading solution connecting Sellside, Buyside, Agents, Custodians, Trustees and Borrowers in the syndicated leveraged loans community.

Ms. Tessier is responsible for product strategy, business development and operations for numerous IHS Markit technology solutions serving the syndicated loan markets. In her role as global head of Loan Platforms, she works closely with the LSTA, LMA and market participants to develop new solutions that address cost and risk challenges in the loan market through technology. Ms. Tessier joined IHS Markit in 2012. Previously, she worked for Goldman Sachs in New York and London, where she oversaw the bank's efforts in loan industry initiatives and led the distressed middle office group. Prior to Goldman Sachs, Ms. Tessier held various roles at JP Morgan, Fidelity Management & Research Co. and Shearman & Sterling.

Ms. Tessier holds a degree in English Literature from the City University of New York.